Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to protect students from bullying and to respond appropriately when bullying does occur.

Policy Statement

Students at YOS Independent School have a right to a safe and supportive learning environment that is free from negative and hurtful experiences. YOS Independent School has a zero-tolerance approach to bullying and is committed to taking action to protect students from bullying and to respond appropriately when bullying does occur. YOS Independent School will use a Restorative Justice Framework when dealing with bullying incidents, and if required have external facilitators manage the conferences. Bullying incidents involving school students that will be addressed via this policy include bullying before, during and after school.

Definitions

- Bullying: is a systematic and repeated abuse of power. In general bullying may be defined as:
  - dominating or hurting someone
  - unfair action by the perpetrator(s) and an imbalance of power
  - a lack of adequate defence by the target and feelings of oppression and humiliation

It can occur at any age, across cultures, genders and socioeconomic groups. It can happen in the playground, toilet areas, to and from school or in the classroom.

- Physical bullying: this is when a person (or group of people) uses physical actions to bully, such as hitting, poking, tripping or pushing. Repeatedly and intentionally damaging someone's belongings is also physical bullying
- Verbal bullying: repeated or systematic name calling, insults, homophobic or racist remarks and verbal abuse
- Covert (Social) bullying: such as lying about someone, spreading rumours, playing a nasty joke that make the person feel humiliated or powerless, mimicking or deliberately excluding someone
- Psychological bullying: for example, threatening, manipulating or stalking someone
- Cyber bullying: using technology, such as email, mobile phones, chat rooms, social networking sites to bully verbally, socially or psychologically

Responsibilities

School Responsibilities

YOS Independent School acknowledges its responsibility to:

- Raise awareness of bullying and how the school will respond to it
- Act to help prevent bullying
- Implement a reporting mechanism for students and parents

- Educate students and parents on how to respond to bullying and how to report it
- Educate employees on how to appropriately respond to bullying
- Investigate and act upon all reports of bullying, including providing appropriate support and consequences
- Foster a safe and healthy environment for the whole school

Employee Responsibilities

At YOS Independent School, employees have a responsibility to:

- Uphold and consistently apply this Policy
- Respond appropriately to reports of bullying,
  - by investigating and acting upon reports of bullying, and
  - by providing appropriate support and consequences in accordance with
    - this policy
    - Positive Behaviour Management Policy
    - Restorative Justice Framework

Parent Responsibilities

At YOS Independent School, parents/carers have a responsibility to:

- Encourage their child not to bully others
- Encourage their child to report bullying to themselves or others
- Encourage their child to take steps to stop bullying as directed under this policy

Student Responsibilities

At YOS Independent School, students have a responsibility to:

- Not engage in bullying behaviour towards others
- Report bullying occurring to them or others
- Take initiative to stop bullying when it occurs
- Maintain a safe, supportive and healthy environment for the school community
- Adhere to the Student code of conduct of Safe and Legal, Responsibility, Respect and Participation.
- Be involved in developing visual advertising around the school around anti bullying

Implementation

In order to prevent bullying from occurring, YOS Independent School will implement the following actions:

- Raise awareness of the school community's shared understanding of what bullying is, how it impacts on people and how bullying is responded to at the school through
  - Curriculum
  - Bullying awareness events
- Develop and promote effective social skills and positive relationships amongst students through curriculum, team building, working in groups
- Visual advertising around the school, which students may develop themselves and be approved by the Principal for display
- Using Restorative Justice Practices to manage incidents

In order to respond appropriately to any incidences of bullying, YOS Independent School will:

- Develop an appropriate mechanism for students and parents to report bullying which is outlined in our procedure
- Educate students and parents on how to respond, in the first instance, to incidences of bullying, and how to then report all incidences of bullying at enrolment and as required

- Educate employees on how to appropriately respond to reports of bullying through training/policy review at the beginning of the school year
- Investigate and act upon all reports of bullying
- Take appropriate action, which might include support for targets of bullying and perpetrators and/or disciplinary measures
- Provide counselling for victims, perpetrators and families
- Promote a school culture where bullying is unacceptable
- Take steps to ensure the student feels safe and are helped to build confidence and resilience
- Ensure the offender is held accountable for their actions and will assist them to face up to the harm that has been caused
- Ensure the offender learns to behave in ways which do not cause harm in the future, because they have developed further understanding of harm they can cause

YOS Independent School's Student Bullying Reporting and Response Procedure explains the basic bullying reporting process for students and parents. Response from staff will be based around YOS Independent Schools Restorative Justice Framework and Positive Behaviour Management Policy.

Compliance and Monitoring

YOS Independent school will ensure records are kept up to date on SAMIS and in students electronic and manual file. The Dispute Resolution Form will be used to record incidents of bullying, which details;

- Details of incident
- Process followed and interventions put in place
- Details of all conversations with parties involved
- Outcome of incident

YOS Independent School will ensure transparency with the community and allow access to the School's policy and procedures through the website and also further information, prevention/awareness strategies and statistics through the Annual General Report.
